DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because the number “42” is not labeled in Fig. 2, but is mentioned in paragraph [0025] of the specification. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 2836

3. Claims 1, 6, 11, and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Wall (2004/0178641). Wall teaches a circuit for preventing islanding in a power system. He teaches monitoring a voltage measurement (356) and determining a phase shift of a generator. He goes on to teach comparing the determined phase shift to a threshold phase shift ($\pi/2$) and if the phase shift is greater than the threshold then issuing a command for a disconnect of the generator ([0128]). He also teaches a computer (i.e. processor, memory and input/output unit) for executing the above method of prevention ([0123]). He also teaches disconnecting the generator by an under frequency procedure ([0125]).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 2, 3, 7, 8, 12 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wall (2004/0178641) and Dautriche (6,304,113). Wall teaches a circuit for preventing islanding in a power system as described above. Wall fails to explicitly teach comparing current and previous zero-crossings to determine the phase shift. Dautriche teaches determining a phase shift of an analog signal by comparing successive values to determine the zero crossing times (i.e. f_{n-1} , f_n) (Claims 10, 11, and 13). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to use this method to determine the phase shift of the voltage in Wall's invention since Wall doesn't explicitly teach when the frequency measurements of the voltage are taken and Dautriche teaches a known method of using the zero-crossings to determine the frequency (phase shift).

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 4, 5, 9, 10, 14 and 15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. These claims are allowable because no prior art of record teaches the equations used to find the phase shift of a signal.
